

SNAP DOUBLE BUCKS

How Does the SNAP Double Bucks Program Work?

There is no registration required to participate in the program. Anyone receiving SNAP benefits is automatically eligible.

Customer tells the person running the EBT machine how much of their benefits they want to spend using their EBT card.

The customer receives wooden tokens double the amount they spent on their EBT card for up to $20 per market day.

The customer then buys any SNAP approved foods using tokens similar to a cash transaction at participating vendors.

Customers can take home any tokens they do not spend and use them on a different market day. Tokens are market specific.

SNAP Double Bucks is a program offered by The Charlotte Mecklenburg Food Policy Council in partnership with Mecklenburg County Public Health Department.

¿Cómo Funciona el Programa SNAP Double Bucks?

No se requiere inscripción para participar en el programa. Cualquier persona que reciba beneficios de SNAP es elegible automáticamente.

El cliente le indica a la persona que opera la máquina EBT cuánto de sus beneficios desea gastar con su tarjeta EBT.

El cliente recibe fichas de madera por el doble de lo que gastó en su tarjeta EBT, hasta $20 por día de mercado.

Luego, el cliente compra alimentos aprobados por SNAP usando las fichas, como si fuera una transacción en efectivo, en los puestos participantes.

Los clientes pueden llevarse a casa las fichas que no gasten y usarlas en otro día de mercado. Las fichas son específicas de cada

SNAP Double Bucks es un programa ofrecido por el Charlotte-Mecklenburg Food Policy Council, en colaboración con el Departamento de Salud Pública del Condado de Mecklenburg.
